Nike prohibits placing logos, emblems, or designs on Nike products that negatively impact the Nike brand including, without limitation, logos, emblems, and designs that are obscene, vulgar, advocate or display violence or illegal activity, and/or relate to sex (including gentlemen's clubs) and pornography industries. Also, Nike is a socially and politically aware brand and reserves the right to prohibit logos, emblems, and designs that, in its sole and absolute discretion, run counter to, or are inconsistent with, its brand identity. The decoration of any Nike garment with the proprietary mark, name or logo of any professional athletic organization, collegiate institution, or high school without the prior written authorization of both the owner of such mark, name or logo and Nike is expressly prohibited. The exportation of Nike product outside of the U.S. is prohibited (including to Puerto Rico, Guam and the Virgin Islands). Please contact your representative with any questions.

A photograph of a golf course featuring a large, light-colored sand trap in the foreground. The sand trap is bordered by a strip of green grass. In the background, a large, mature tree with dense green foliage stands against a clear blue sky. The word "POLOS" is overlaid in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters on the right side of the image, partially obscuring the tree and sky.

A photograph of a desert landscape. In the foreground, a paved road with a white line runs diagonally from the bottom left towards the right. To the left of the road is a concrete curb and a sandy area with several saguaro cacti. A large, dense, green bush dominates the middle ground. In the background, more saguaros and desert vegetation are visible under a blue sky with scattered white clouds. The word "TEES" is overlaid in large white letters on a semi-transparent rectangular background in the center-right of the image.
